ROUTES DU BONHEUR From Bordeaux to the Île de Ré, via vineyards, cities and beaches

Book an itinerary with our concierges and benefit from exclusive discounts, up to 15% discount on certain nights.

This journey along the Atlantic coast begins in Bordeaux with a vitalizing art-filled "city break". The trip up the Garonne river goes hand-in-hand with oyster tasting along the coast of the Banc d'Arguin, and a barge trip to Cap Ferret. To the north of Arcachon Bay, the Cordouan lighthouse and La Rochelle in turn offer beautiful stopovers facing the ocean. Enjoying long white sandy beaches and leisurely bike rides on the Ile de Ré concludes a salt-sprayed getaway that you wish you could prolong...

1 PAUILLAC — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Château Cordeillan-Bages

Restaurant and hotel in a vineyard. Located between the estuary and the beaches of the Atlantic, this classic Gironde charterhouse is a lively place where the Cazes family cultivates the discreet charm and warm elegance of a home surrounded by vineyards and adorned with the works of contemporary artists. The wine list, with more than 1,800 vintages, includes Bordeaux Grands Crus such as the renowned Château Lynch-Bages, which has been with the family since 1939. During a winemaking session, assemble your own wine and start tasting. A few steps away, the village of Bages is an essential stop on the Bordeaux wine route, where you can wander at your leisure and truly experience art de vivre!

2 SAINT-EMILION — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Hôtel de Pavie

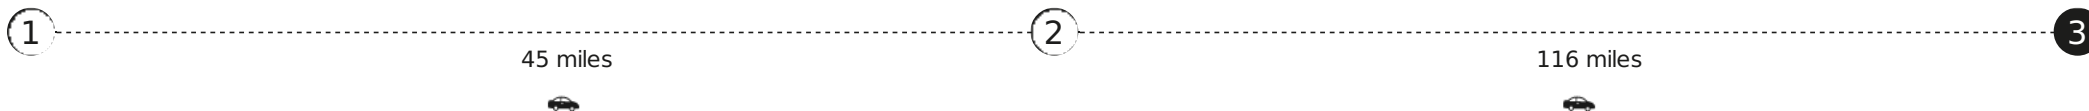

Hotel and restaurant in a village. An essential stop along the famed Route des Grands Crus, the charming medieval village of Saint-Emilion is home to Hôtel de Pavie, an intimate establishment with an elegant atmosphere. With its gastronomic restaurant-whose menu is spearheaded by Yannick Alléno—it's a must-visit for epicureans that's just 40 minutes from Bordeaux. Rooms and suites are arranged around three buildings: La Maison du Clocher (or Bell Tower), named for its neighboring, iconic church; La Maison de Village, a historic residence featuring Roman ceramics and English style; and La Maison des Suites, which juxtaposes contemporary decor with the historic character of its 18th-century origins. Its restaurant—La Table de Pavie—offers its interpretation of regional haute cuisine, paired with wines from surrounding vineyards. You can admire the landscape from the raised terrace, which also offers breathtaking views over the city's rooftops.
