ROUTES DU BONHEUR Circuit around the coast of Brittany by The Sentier des Douaniers

Retracing the coastal paths of the customs officials is to walk between land and sea; here, you'll find yourself in a protected, unchanged world where the landscape seems to thank you with each new step. Between the wind and the sea spray, you'll discover wonderfully fragrant plants, the silhouettes of centuries-old lighthouses, sandy beaches, pink granite rocks, lost islets, and sailboats right out of the pages of Joseph Conrad. Starting at the bay of Mont Saint-Michel, this coastal slice of Brittany is a gateway to all emotions...

1 SAINT MÉLOIR DES ONDES — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Les Maisons de Bricourt

Restaurant and hotel on the seafront. At Les Maisons de Bricourt there are breathtaking views of the bay of Mont-Saint-Michel and, at your feet, the oyster farms and the little port of Cancale. In this world of the seafarers of Saint-Malo, the spirit of the restaurant Le Coquillage is one of elegant simplicity. The cuisine with produce from the bay of Cancale reflects the maritime adventures of this pirate country by using more than 120 spices from the East and West Indies. You will find two residences; the château Richeux and the cottage Les Rimains, as well as Les Gîtes Marins for families. The Roellingers's joie de vivre is evident in the patisserie-tea room Grain de Vanille and the Épices-Roellinger warehouse.

2 TRÉBEURDEN — 2 NIGHTS

(1 property available)

Manoir de Lan-Kerellec

Hotel and restaurant on the seafont. Surrounded by the immense sea and the reefs of the Pink Granite Coast, the Manoir de Lan-Kerellec in Trébeurden is a jewel in Brittany's crown. From your balcony, drink in the magical panoramic view of the islands of Milliau, Molène and Losquet. Then you might want to take a walk along the coastal "path of the customs officers" to taste the sea spray, or scuba dive for a closer look at the underwater nature reserve. Enjoy your dinner showcasing the produce of the sea in the dining room built in the shape of an upturned boat, a masterpiece by the Compagnons du Devoir.

Weekly closing :

Restaurant: lunch from Monday to Wednesday, Monday evening, Tuesday evening (low season), Monday and Tuesday noon (july/august).

3 ROSCOFF — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Brittany & Spa

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Formerly a smuggling port and refuge, Roscoff has remained a unique destination, with its waves of emerald, granite cottages and manor houses nestled amongst the cliffs. This hideaway is an ancient trader's property with a swimming pool, spa and direct access to the beach. The chef will treat you to an exceptional quality of fish and seafood, directly sourced from the local fishermen. His cuisine is a reflection of modern Brittany; it is a real pleasure to see, to feel, to taste! A 15 minutes boat trip is all that is needed to discover the island of Batz, a "tropical" pearl with palm trees and beaches of fine sand that has been magically misplaced in the English Channel.

4 POINTE DU RAZ — 2 NIGHTS

(2 properties available)

Auberge des Glazicks

Hotel and restaurant in a village. It began as a blacksmith's forge, then an inn stocked by the adjoining farm where workers and villagers met. Today, it is where Olivier Bellin, who took over from his grandmother and mother, interprets his "modern" version of a "land and sea" cuisine steeped in history. The fish are wild varieties, the vegetables are organic and the meat comes from small producers. Magnified in dishes boasting intense flavours, they continually seduce local Bretons and attract travellers who enjoy staying in the rooms adorned in highly contemporary decor. On sunny days, the magnificent view over the Bay of Douarnenez adds the final touch.

Weekly closing :

Hotel: Monday and Tuesday (open every day). Restaurant: lunch from Monday to Wednesday, Monday evening, Tuesday evening.

Hôtel de la Plage

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Refined dishes such as lobster ravioli, croustille of tourteau, suckling veal and lamb from the Ponclet farm, white of turbot... take on a special flavour when they are served on the seafront in a wonderful place like Hôtel de la Plage. The panoramic restaurant overlooks the ocean and the vast beach of fine sand, only separated by a unique dry stone wall. There are similar views from the rooms, where you can hear the gentle lapping of the waves. Guests with families will enjoy the beach entirely dedicated to children, the water-based recreational activities and walks offered by the Bay of Douarnenez and the Finistère.

5 KERVIGNAC — 1 NIGHT

(1 property available)

Domaine de Locguénolé & Spa

Hotel and restaurant on the seafront. Locguénolé is located next to the dark waters of a sea inlet in the heart of a land of legends. The Château and the small Manor House overlook a wide estuary where the light and landscape change with the tides. These buildings from the 18th and early 19th centuries are set in wooded parkland and have remained in the hands of the same family for centuries. They boast a combination of modern comfort and tradition with classical décor and period furniture. The creative cuisine is based on a subtle pairing of ingredients from the Morbihan terroir and the ocean. A private pontoon permits sailors travelling up the Blavet from Lorient harbour to dock at this delightful haven.
